OLD BUSINESS

BIG BANG REVIEW – Ed handed out an income and expense statement for the Big Bang Event. Net Income was $2265. Dinners sold were down this year from 160 to 119. Discussion to move the event to the 3rd weekend in July due to several other events taking place that same weekend. Steve Pfeiffer motioned to table this decision until next month. Pat Gerber seconded and motion carried.

SOUND SYSTEM –Steve Pfeiffer reported on the estimate received from Selk Electronics. The total cost, including installation would be $5612 with tax. Motion made by Don Hart and seconded by Duane Gjerseth to move ahead with the purchase of this sound system from Selk Electronics for a cost of $5612. Motion carried WOOD DUCK HOUSES – It was suggested to put an ad online to sell these. Jack Ikhtiari will get it on our website.

VENDING MACHINE FOR BAIT – The Agreement for placement of this vending machine on club property has been signed and returned to Ed, and the vending machine is now in place. Hopefully this will be an asset for the community.

WORK DAY – As a reminder – August 23rd is the agreed upon workday to get the discussed concrete work done at both the shooting range and the clubhouse. Dennis suggested that we plan to have a cookout at the clubhouse after all work is done.

15 GUN RAFFLE - Ed is working on compiling the list of guns and will start work on getting sponsors soon.

Motion to adjourn by Jack and seconded by Don. Meeting adjourned at 7:35
